News

Here you will find current news on international activities of German actors in the fields of education, research and innovation.

05.05.2020
Exchange of knowledge with Africa: New Africa Centre for Transregional Studies launched

On the 4th of May the new University of Freiburg institution for interdisciplinary research with African scientists, the Africa Centre for Transregional Studies (ACT), launched. Due to the corona pandemic the ceremony was held virtually.

read more

28.04.2020
Copernicus Award 2020 for Outstanding German-Polish Collaboration in Cryptography

German Research Foundation (DFG) and Foundation of Polish Science (FNP) honour researchers from Darmstadt and Warsaw.

read more

24.04.2020
German Rectors' Conference HRK: Guidelines and standards for international university cooperation

International cooperation is indispensable to German universities. Standards are needed for this cooperation that enable sustainable interaction, in particular with partners from nations with restrictions on civil liberties.

read more 22.04.2020

Imagining Futures – Dealing with Disparity: Merian Centre for Advanced Studies to be established in Tunis

The Merian Centre for Advanced Studies in the Maghreb (MECAM) will be established this year in Tunis. The centre is a joint endeavour of seven German and Tunisian Universities and research institutions: The University of Marburg, the University of...

read more

09.04.2020

Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz to cooperate closely with czech Masaryk University on RNA research

Twinning program of the European Union will fund the training of young researchers and scientists from the Czech Republic at Mainz University.

read more

07.04.2020

New platform for Europe-wide news from science and research: European Science Press Service (ESPS)

The new European Science Press Service (ESPS) is an information platform for scientific findings in the field of internet and society research. The ESPS was initiated by the Alexander von Humboldt Institute for Internet and Society (HIIG) to promote...

read more

02.04.2020

Aid campaign from China: International Humboldt Network shows strength

Humboldt alumni from China have collected donations to help Germany during the corona crisis.

read more 26.03.2020
Support for research on the Covid-19 disease

There are several open calls for research & development addressing the novel coronavirus (AMED, BMBF, EU).

read more

26.03.2020
Guideline for Innovation Funding Sources in Europe – by ENRICH in Brazil

This publication covers the main innovation funding sources at national level in Europe.

read more

1 2 3 ... 122 Next