

News

Here you will find current news on international activities of German actors in the fields of education, research and innovation.

28.07.2010

Fraunhofer IST and Sheffield Hallam University establish a HIPIMS Research Centre

Sheffield Hallam University has established a HIPIMS Research Centre with German research institute Fraunhofer IST to lead the global development of the physical vapour deposition (PVD) process - which is revolutionising high tech industry by...

read more

28.07.2010

Fraunhofer joint booth on the photovoltaics exhibition and conference EU PVSEC in Valencia

On the world's largest photovoltaics exhibition and conference EU PVSEC in Valencia, Spain (September 6-9, 2010) the Fraunhofer Institute for Laser Technology ILT together with the Fraunhofer Institute for Manufacturing Engineering and Automation IPA...

read more

22.07.2010

New investment in the next generation of scientists and engineers to boost the UK economy

Forty six outstanding UK researchers have been awarded EPSRC fellowships totaling £38 million to help develop their potential as the next generation of world-leading scientists and engineers.

read more

21.07.2010

UK: Further Education minister John Hayes has welcomed the publication of an independent report on the co-investment system in Further Education.

The Department for Business, Innovation and Skills commissioned Christopher N. Banks CBE to undertake the review to assess the systems by which adult learners and employers co-invest in learning with the Government, and how the system can be...

read more

21.07.2010

UK space industry enters a new age

Mr Willetts announced the signing of agreements with NASA and the Russian Federal Space Bureau during his first major speech on space. Key announcements in the speech included: The signing of a Statement of Intent with NASA to work closely...

read more

16.07.2010

Networks and record-breaking lasers: The AKL'10 International Laser Technology Congress in Aachen

This was the eighth time that the Aachen-based Fraunhofer Institute for Laser Technology ILT sent out invitations – and the response they received was remarkable. More than 500 registrants attended the AKL'10 International Laser Technology Congress...

read more

16.07.2010

30 Years of Alfred Wegener Institute for Polar and Marine Research

Today (15 July) the Alfred Wegener Institute for Polar and Marine Research in the Helmholtz Association will be thirty years old. Through its innovative scientific and excellent research infrastructure the Alfred Wegener Institute (AWI) has developed...

read more

14.07.2010

Business Minister supports Ford's investment in UK to develop low carbon engines

The paperwork for Ford's loan and backing from the Government was signed off during a visit by Business Minister, Mark Prisk, to Ford's technical centre at Dunton, Essex.

read more

13.07.2010

Summer Academy 2010 at the University of Koblenz-Landau

The Faculty of Computer Science of the University of Koblenz-Landau, Campus Koblenz in Germany has opened its doors to the annual Summer Academy for more than 50 participants from 13 countries as Ghana, Great Britain, India, and Morocco.

read more

« first < previous 127 128 129 130 131 132 133 134 135 ... next > last »