

News

Here you will find current news on international activities of German actors in the fields of education, research and innovation.

28.11.2023 | Global reporting

New online tool for evaluating risks and opportunities in international research collaborations

The DLR Project Management Agency has developed an online tool to make research collaborations with international partners more secure. With OPERATE, scientists can better assess the risks and opportunities of their collaboration and gain confidence...

read more

15.11.2023 | Internationalisation of Germany, bi-/ multi-lateral cooperation

DFG and the Israel Science Foundation Agree to Intensify Collaboration

The Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft (DFG, German Research Foundation) and its Israeli partner organisation, the Israel Science Foundation (ISF), have agreed to pursue their cooperation in greater depth. The two funding organisations now concluded a...

read more

08.11.2023 | Global reporting

Opening of the Japanese-German Green Hydrogen Materials Laboratory in Japan. Joint materials research for green hydrogen.

The opening ceremony of the Japanese-German Green Hydrogen Material Laboratory took place on 20 September in Kofu, Japan. Around 40 people from science, politics and industry attended the event.

read more

26.10.2023

Brazil-Germany Tech Challenge 2023

Connecting young Tech-talents from Germany working on innovative solutions with renowned corporates from Brazil

read more

10.10.2023 | Internationalisation of Germany, bi-/ multi-lateral cooperation

Green Deal Ukraina: Energy and Climate Agenda for Ukraine's way towards EU

The Green Deal Ukraina (GDU) project launched in Kyiv October 9th, 2023, and an Advisory Council was established. The first high-level event of the GDU project took place in Kyiv, Ukraine and was attended by more than 150 participants.

read more

05.10.2023

New website presents German Excellence Strategy

The Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft (DFG, German Research Foundation) and the Wissenschaftsrat (WR, Science Council) present the Excellence Strategy and the funded projects on a new website, which sees itself as a "calling card" for the Excellence...

read more

22.09.2023 | Internationalisation of Germany, bi-/ multi-lateral cooperation

CAPES-Humboldt Research Fellowship Programme: Fellowships for researchers from Brazil

The CAPES-Humboldt Research Fellowship Programme awards fellowships to researchers from Brazil with above-average qualifications. The next application deadline - for fellowships starting in the period from September 2024 to May 2025 - is 30 November...

read more

22.09.2023

AI and ChatGPT in Science and the Humanities: German Research Foundation Formulates Guidelines for Dealing with Generative Models for Text and Image Creation

The Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft (DFG, German Research Foundation) has formulated initial guidelines for dealing with generative models for text and image creation. A statement now published by the Executive Committee of the largest research...

read more

21.09.2023

Alexander von Humboldt Foundation: Awards for researchers from developing and transition countries

The Alexander von Humboldt Foundation to present its Georg Forster Research Awards, each valued at €60,000.

read more

« first < previous 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 ... next > last »