Duration: 04.05.2023 - 05.05.2023 City: Regensburg and online Country: Germany

The Bavarian Academic Center for Central, Eastern and Southeastern Europe (BAYHOST) and the Leibniz-Institute for East and Southeast European Studies (IOS) are organizing a Ukrainian- Bavarian Conference on Double Degree Programs from 4-5 May in Regensburg (Germany). The conference aims to initiate new double degree programs of Ukrainian and Bavarian universities.

In the information session, important aspects and procedures for establishing and accrediting double degree programs both in Bavaria and in Ukraine will be explained. Coordinators of already existing Ukrainian-German study programs will present their courses and share their experience. The German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) will provide information on suitable funding programs for developing and running double degree programs with Ukraine. The conference is directed to university teachers and managers from Ukraine and Bavaria who are interested in the topic and responsible for international study programs. In working groups related to different academic fields, they can present proposals for cooperation and establish new contacts. Individual counseling and talks with experts and colleagues are possible as well.

Address: Universität Regensburg, Haus der Begegnung, Hinter der Grieb 8, 93051 Regensburg
